Nutrition.

Annamaet's Sensitive Skin & Stomach Dog Food supports digestive health and promotes skin and coat wellness, making it especially beneficial during summer months when seasonal allergies and sensitivities increase. Its gentle, consistent formulation also makes it a reliable option for maintaining nutritional routines while traveling, helping retailers meet both seasonal and on-the-go demand.

Nature's Logic large bags of dog food provide a convenient, high-value option for pet parents seeking consistent, whole-food nutrition. Their clean ingredient philosophy and everyday usability make them a strong choice for retailers looking to support repeat purchases and customer loyalty.

Open Farm's Fresh Food for Dogs offers versatile, high-quality nutrition for both complete meals and topper use. With strong demand for fresh-feeding options, this lineup provides retailers with an excellent opportunity to expand assortment and drive repeat sales.

Crumps' Naturals Mini Trainers are bite-sized treats designed for training and everyday rewards, making them especially relevant during National Dog Month. Their ease of use and strong repeat-purchase appeal make them a reliable option for retailers looking to support daily engagement and drive consistent sales.

Dogginstix offers a diverse lineup of natural chews designed to support healthy chewing habits and everyday enrichment for dogs. With strong consumer appeal and a variety of options to meet different needs, the brand provides retailers with a dependable category driver that encourages repeat purchases.

FEATURED BRANDS

The word "woof" is written in a dark teal, rounded, lowercase font.

Woof's dental products are designed to support cleaner teeth and promote healthier daily routines for dogs. With functional benefits and strong everyday appeal, they offer retailers a valuable option within the growing pet dental care category.

Indigenous Pet's Dental Health Bones provide an easy, daily solution for supporting oral health by helping fight tartar and plaque, making them especially relevant during National Dog Month. Their routine-friendly use and strong repeat-purchase potential make them a reliable choice for retailers looking to support ongoing pet wellness.

The text "Suzie's CBD Treats" is written in a blue, cursive, handwritten-style font. A small paw print icon is placed above the letter 'i' in "Suzie's".

Suzie's CBD Treats offer calming solutions for both dogs and cats, making them especially valuable as retailers transition from National Dog Month into Happy Cat Month. With strong demand for stress-support products and multi-species appeal, they provide a reliable opportunity to drive wellness-focused sales.

Vet Worthy's "Get Your Pet Adventure Ready" promotion highlights hip and joint support products designed to help dogs stay active and comfortable during National Dog Month. With strong seasonal demand and everyday wellness benefits, these products offer retailers a valuable opportunity to support mobility and drive sales.

Wondercide's plant-powered Flea & Tick Sprays offer a natural, multi-purpose solution designed to protect both pets and home environments. With strong demand for cleaner, versatile pest-control options, they provide retailers with a valuable opportunity to expand their natural care category and drive sales.

FEATURED BRANDS

YEOWWW! catnip toys encourage energetic play followed by a calming, relaxed state, making them ideal for keeping cats engaged and content during Happy Cat Month. With strong consumer recognition and everyday appeal, they offer retailers a reliable opportunity to drive sales in the feline enrichment category.
