FEATURED BRANDS

Dave's Pet Food is featured for its new Food Pouches, offering convenient, easy-serve nutrition that works as a topper, mixer, or complete meal. With strong customer appeal and practical everyday value, these pouches provide retailers with a great opportunity to drive trial and repeat purchases.

Nature's Logic is featured for its commitment to whole-food nutrition made without synthetic vitamins or minerals, offering pets naturally sourced, dependable nourishment. With a focus on quality, transparency, and real ingredients, the brand provides retailers with trusted options that strongly resonate with today's ingredient-conscious pet families.

Open Farm's newest Duck kibble recipe for dogs and cats features certified humanely raised Duck as the first ingredient, while continuing to deliver on their promise of 100% traceable ingredients and responsible sourcing. Available in grain and grain-free options, this addition provides a compelling opportunity to expand product variety and support protein rotation on the shelf.

A Pup Above offers retailers a strong sales opportunity with its premium, ingredient-focused dog nutrition that meets growing consumer demand for transparency and high-quality wellness products. As interest in clean, trustworthy food continues to rise, these high-performing recipes help drive category growth and provide customers with elevated, reliable options.

Honey I'm Home offers high-appeal chews made from human-grade water buffalo and coated in sustainably harvested honey, giving retailers a unique, premium option that stands out on the shelf. With strong customer appeal and consistent repeat purchases, these enrichment-focused treats provide a reliable sales driver for stores looking to elevate their chew assortment.

Crumps' Naturals is featured for its single-ingredient treats, offering pets clean, wholesome snacking options made with just one high-quality ingredient. Their focus on simplicity, transparency, and consistent quality makes these treats a trusted choice for pet families seeking straightforward, nutritious options.

FEATURED BRANDS

The logo for 'woof' is written in a lowercase, rounded, teal-colored font.

Woof's Calming products offer retailers a strong opportunity to meet growing demand for effective, functional wellness solutions that help pets manage everyday stress. With quality ingredients and purposeful benefits that drive repeat purchases, these products provide a high-value addition to any store's calming or wellness assortment.

Indigenous[®] Pet Products

Indigenous Pet Products is featured for its Sea Kelp Flakes, an easy-to-use and nutritious addition that supports pet dental health care and long-term wellness. With a focus on quality and consistency, the brand continues to deliver natural, innovative dental health products that resonate with today's pet families.

Smart Cookie is featured for its purposeful, ingredient-driven dog treats, inspired by a deeply personal journey that sparked the founders' commitment to cleaner, functional nutrition. From its beginnings with the handcrafted Smart Cookie Cart to its continued small-batch production in Colorado, the brand has grown while staying true to its roots of authenticity, quality, and care.

Ultra Oil delivers high-impact nutritional oils designed to support healthy skin and coat while also offering formulas that help promote mobility and joint comfort for pets. Their focus on clean ingredients, reliable performance, and purposeful wellness benefits makes Ultra Oil a strong sales driver for retailers looking to offer trusted, high-value solutions that enhance pets' daily routines.

Suzie's CBD Treats

Suzie's full lineup of CBD treats, chews, and oils offers pet parents reliable calming support—especially helpful as Independence Day approaches and noise-related stress increases. With consistent, high-quality formulations that drive strong seasonal demand, these products provide retailers with valuable opportunities for customer confidence and repeat sales.

Vet Worthy's "Adventure Ready Essentials" offers retailers a strong opportunity to stock up on practical first aid and wellness supplies that help pet families stay prepared for outdoor activities. With simple, dependable solutions designed for active lifestyles, these products provide valuable support for customers seeking care and reliability on the go.

FEATURED BRANDS

Outward Hound is featured for its engaging cat toys and its interactive dog puzzles and games, all designed to support natural play, mental stimulation, and everyday enrichment. With a focus on creativity, thoughtful design, and meaningful pet-family bonding, the brand offers retailers a strong lineup of products that keep pets active, curious, and thriving.

Wondercide's newest Flea & Tick Shampoos, 3-pack Collars, and the versatile RESCUE™ line offer retailers strong plant-powered solutions for everyday pet and home care. These innovative, high-demand products create valuable opportunities for stores looking to expand their natural pest-control assortment.

YEOWWW! is featured for its bold, USA-made cat toys filled with premium catnip known for its strong, natural aroma. This high-quality catnip not only encourages energetic play but also provides a calming effect that helps support cats' emotional well-being.
